```
same as dative present
                                ω-Verbs:
                                                                          Singular
                                                                                                                      Plural
                                                                                                                                                                                       Meaning
                                                                                                                                          participle
                                Present:
                                                                                                                      ομεν ετε ουσι(ν)
                                                                                                                                                                                       I am loosing / I loose (+\sigma \rightarrow Future)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               ch3
                                                                          λυω εις ει Imperf/2nd A:
                                                                          έλυον ες ε(ν)
                                                                                                                       ομεν ετε ον
                                                                                                                                                                                       I was loosing (clues: ον \zeta ν μεν τε ον — note overlap)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              ch7
                                1st Aorist:

\tilde{\epsilon} \lambda v \sigma \alpha \sigma \alpha \zeta \sigma \varepsilon(v) \sigma \alpha \mu \varepsilon v \sigma \alpha \tau \varepsilon \sigma \alpha v

                                                                                                                                                                                       I loosed (-\sigma\alpha + \sim \zeta  ζεν μεν τε ν — note ε exception)
      Active <
                                Perfect:
                                                                          λελύκα κας κε(ν) καμεν κατε κασι(ν)
                                                                                                                                                                                       I have loosed: front redup; without κ for 2nd perfect
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               ch10
                                     οἶδα present (dep): οἶδα οἶδας οἶδε(ν) οἴδαμεν οἴδατε οἴδασι(ν)
                                                                                                                                                                                       I know (perfect form; present translation)
                                Pluperfect:
                                                                          (έ)λελύκειν κεις κει κειμεν κειτε κεισαν
                                                                                                                                                                                       I had loosed: ἐ(usually) + reduplication οἶδα imperf: ἤδειν ἤδεις ἤδει ήδειμεν ήδειτε ήδεισαν
                                                                                                                                                                                       I knew (pluperfect form; imperfect translation)
     When
                                                                                                                                                                                       P: I am being loosed: agency 'by': ὑπό(G), διά(G), (ἐν)(D)
                                Present:
                                                                          λύομαι η εται
                                                                                                                      ομεθα εσθε ονται
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               ch12
accusative
                                Imperf/2nd A:
                                                                          έλυόμην ου ετο
                                                                                                                      όμεθα εσθε οντο
                                                                                                                                                                                       M: I was loosing (self); P: I was being loosed
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               ch14
                                1st Aorist M: έλυσάμην σω σατο σάμεθα σασθε σαντο
                                                                                                                                                                                       I loosed (self)
    Middle
                                                                          λέλυμαι σαι ται
                                Perfect:
                                                                                                                      μεθα σθε νται
                                                                                                                                                                                       M: I have loosed (self); P: I have been loosed
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               ch13
/ Passive
                                                                                                                                                                                       м: I had loosed (self); P: I had been loosed (only 7 in NT) έλελύμην σο το
                                                                                                                      μεθα σθε ντο
                                Pluperfect:
                                Aorist Passive: έλυθην θης θη
                                                                                                                      θημεν θητε θησαν
                                                                                                                                                                                       I was loosed
                                                                                                                                                                                                                            ch15 Liquids: αναβαινω/καταβαινω
         When
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               αιρω/εγειρω/σπειρω
                                Future Psve: Δυθησομαι θηςη θησεται θησομεθα θησεσθε θησονται
                                                                                                                                                                                       I will be loosed
         agent
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               αγγελλω/αποστελλω/αποκτεινω ch19 Liquid λμνρ verbs: fut: \sigma \rightarrow \epsilon then amalgamated aorist: \sigma \rightarrow lengthend final stem vowel θελω/μενω/κρινω
                                Contract ago verbs: act+imperf only; in other tenses, lengthened final stem vowel Contractions
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     +0 ch25 ul-Verbs:
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    +8
                                                                other mood/tense endings match ω-Verbs except aorist σ->κ (usually); aorist act. inf. σαι->ναι; ptc: δους δοντος \tilde{\alpha} (\tilde{\alpha}^*) ω
                                Present:
                                                                          A: δίδω-μι -ς -σι(ν) δίδο-μεν -τε -ασι(ν)
                                                                                                                                                                                       M/P: \delta i \delta o-\mu \alpha i \sigma \alpha i \tau \alpha i \mu \epsilon \theta \alpha \sigma \theta \epsilon \nu \tau \alpha i ε ου
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    εĩ
                                                                                                                         \dot{\epsilon}\delta i \delta o - \mu \epsilon v - \tau \epsilon - \sigma \alpha(v) Imperf:
                                                                          Α: ἐδίδου-ν -ς -
                                                                                                                                                                                       M/P: \dot{\epsilon}διδό-μην σο το μεθα σθε ντο οῦ (οῖ*)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    ου
                                                                        pres: lengthen o\rightarrow\omega | \varepsilon/\alpha\rightarrow\eta in sg; imperf: lengthen \omega\rightarrow\omega | \varepsilon/\alpha\rightarrow\varepsilon\iota/\eta in sg.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        * for \varepsilon i \zeta / \varepsilon i / \eta ch3 ειμι (to be) pres: εἰμι εἶ ἐστι(ν) έσμεν έστε είσι(ν)
                                                                                                                                                                                       I am: present
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              μι-Verbs
                                  imperf:
                                                                           ήμην ής ήν
                                                                                                                       ἦμεν ἦτε ἦσαν
                                                                                                                                                                                       I was: imperfect indicative of εἰμι lexical root
                                  future:
                                                                          ἔσομαι ἔση ἔσται
                                                                                                                      ἐσόμεθα ἔσεσθε ἔσονται
                                                                                                                                                                                       I will be: future indicative of είμι διδωμι δο
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      τιθημι
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                θε
                                Nouns:
                                                                          (Remember: neuter plural nouns take singular verbs) ίστημι
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              στα
                    ch4 2^{nd} declension: M/F: ος ου ω ον ε 10 ων 10ς ους
                                                                                                                                                                  N: ^{Sg:}OV--OV ^{Pl:}\alpha--\alpha
                                                                                                                                                                                                                 Fem. eg: ἐρημος ὀδος
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Optative: wish (μι-endings)
                    ch5 1st declension:
                                                                          Sg. memory clue -
                                                                                                                        M 'souin': \zeta OU_1V F 'sin': \sim \zeta_1V as follows:
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              conn. vowel = o_i, \alpha_i, \theta_{\epsilon i} M ης-stem
                                                                           ης ου η ην νος: α αι ων αις ας \varepsiloniuí = \varepsiloniv
                                     M ας-stem
                                                                          ας ου α αν νος: α
                                                                                                                     αι ων αις ας
                                     F ειο-stem:
                                                                          α ας α αν
                                                                                                                      αι ων αις ας
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        1st decln. Case clues (memorise)
                                     F σζξψ-stem:
                                                                          α ης η αν
                                                                                                                      αι ων αις ας
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Case
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 Singular
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Plural
                                     F others:
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           οι/αι
                                                                                                                      αι ων αις ας
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      N.
                                                                           η ης η ην
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     M: \alpha \zeta/\eta \zeta
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              F: α/η
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      G.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     м: ои
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           F: \alpha \zeta / \eta \zeta ων
                                Article M:
                                                                          ό του τω τον
                                                                                                                      οί των τοις τους (follows 2nd decln) D. οις/αις
                                                     F:
                                                                                                                      αί των ταις τας
                                                                          ή της τη την
                                                                                                                                                                 (follows 1st decln)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      A.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        ν
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        ους/ας
                                                     N:
                                                                           \tau o = M = M \tau o
                                                                                                                      \tau\alpha = M = M
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           Beware overlaps in (red)
                                Pronouns:
                  ch11
                                 Dem. this/these: Μ: οὖτος τούτου... οὖτοι... F: αὕτη ταύτης... αὖται τούτων ταύταις... N: τοῦτο τούτου... ταύτα -ων -οις ταύτα that/those: ἐκεἶνος ... then follows the article for M & F & N Note: if modifying noun, agree in gender&num&case and in predicative pos. and noun has article; else substantive ch9
                                 Personal:
                                                                          memory clue – μου μοι με
                                                                                                                                           εις ων ιν ας
                                   1st:
                                                                          έγω (έ)μου (έ)μοι (έ)με
                                                                                                                                           ήμεις ήμων ήμιν ήμας
                                                                                                                                                                                                             (I/we - \dot{\epsilon} \text{ for special emphasis})
                                   2nd:
                                                                          συ σου σοι σε
                                                                                                                                            ύμεις ύμων ύμιν ύμας
                                                                                                                                                                                                             (you/yous)
                                   3rd M:
                                                                          αὐτ + ος ου ω ον
                                                                                                                                            οι ων οις ους
                                                                                                                                                                                                             (follows 2nd decln)
                                   3rd F:
                                                                          αὐτ + η ης η ην
                                                                                                                                            αι ων αις ας
                                                                                                                                                                                                             (follows 1st decln)
                                   3rd N:
                                                                          αὐτ + ο ου ω ο
                                                                                                                                            α ων οις α
                                                                                                                                                                                                             (follows article)
                                                                          as pronoun agrees in gender&num with the antecedent Normal αυτ*:
                                                                          next to pronoun, intensifier, agrees num&case: ἐγω αὐτος λεγω = I myself speak (notes p80)
                                                                          next to verb, agrees in number; always nom.
                                                                                                                                                                                       functions as intensifier 'self'
                                         Special αυτ*:
                                                                          with noun agrees in gender&number&case attributive='same'; predicative=self Combine \Rightarrow \text{``indefinite relative'' (mostly nom): \"{o}\sigma\tau\iota\varsigma, ~\breve{\eta}\tau\iota\varsigma, ~\breve{o}\tau\iota ~~o\breve{\iota}\tau\iota\nu\varsigma\varsigma, ~\breve{\alpha}\check{\iota}\tau\iota\nu\varsigma\varsigma, ~\breve{\alpha}\check{\iota}\tau\iota\nu\varsigma; \\ \\ \text{``who/whoever', `what/whatever'} \\ \\ \text{``who/whoever', `whoever'} \\ \\ \text{``whoever', `whoever''} \\ \\ \text{``whoever', `whoever''} \\ \\ \text{``whoever', `whoever''} \\ \\ \text{``whoever''} \\ \\ ch22 Interrogative:
                                                                           M/F (who): τίς τίνος τίνι τίνα τίνες τίνων τίσι(ν) τίνας
                                                                                                                                                                                                        N (what/why): τί-τί τίνα-τίνα (follows 3rd decln) [ Indefinite (no '):
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 some/certain/several/any one/thing(s) τις τινος τινι τινα τινες ...
                                  Relative (all rough): M: \ddot{o}Ç O \ddot{\tilde{o}} \ddot{\tilde{o}}V O \ddot{\tilde{o}}V O \ddot{\tilde{o}}V O \ddot{\tilde{o}}C F: \ddot{\eta} \ddot{\tilde{\eta}}C \ddot{\tilde{\eta}} \ddot{\eta}V \ddot{\tilde{o}}V \ddot{\tilde{o}}V \ddot{\tilde{o}}C \ddot{\tilde{o}}V O \ddot{\tilde{o N: \delta--\delta \alpha--\alpha who/whom/which (like \alpha v \tau o c decln) Reciprocal:
                                                                          άλληλων: of one another άλληλοις: to one another άλληλους: one another
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        (from ἀλλος 'another')
                                  Reflexive:
                                                                          Sg:
                                                                                                                          2ndp: σε* 3rdp: έ* myself, yourself, him/her/itself(s) (*=all αυτος forms)
                                                                                                                                                                              Pl. p'ssor: 1stp: ἡμετερ+ 2ndp: ὑμετερ+ (+=2nd decln: N=ov--ov)
                                  Posessive:
                                                                          Sg. p'ssor: 1stp: ἐμ+
                                                                                                                          2ndp: σ+
                                                                                                                                               3rdp: ἰδι+
                                                                                                                                               (his/her/its)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             (your ) (+matches gen/no./case of posessed) ch6 Adjectives:
                                                                          art + adj → attributive
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   no noun → substantive: 'people' adj first or last → predicative: 'is'
                                   M (F if α-prefix): ος ου ω ον ε (2nd decln)
                                                                                                                                            ιο ων ιος ους
                                                                                                                                                                                       Ν: ον--ον α--α
                                                                          ηηςηην
                                                                                                                                            αι ων αις ας
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   (1st decln)
                                                                           ^{\alpha} if stem ends \epsilon/\iota/\rho
                                                                                                                                                                                       Note: Adjectives must agree with the noun in gender&num&case
```

```
ch17 3rd declension: M/F: \zeta o\zeta 1 \alpha ες ων σι(ν) ας
                                                                                                                                            N: \sim oci \sim \alpha \omega v \sigma i(v) \alpha Noun-genitive: M: -\omega v/\eta \rho -\epsilon v \zeta \rightarrow -\sigma \zeta -\epsilon \omega \zeta F: -\xi -\iota \zeta \rightarrow -\sigma \zeta -\epsilon \omega \zeta
                                                                                                                                            N: -\mu\alpha/-\rho -oc \rightarrow -\mu\alpha\tau oc -occ (+ ή γυνή/θυγάτηρ/μήτηρ)
                                                 -ων -οντος -οντι -οντα
                                                                                              -\text{onteg} -\text{ontwn} -\text{ontg}
                                                                                                                                                          D. has \varepsilon prefix in 3 hard forms
                       βασιλευς, δ:
                                                 -ευς -εως -ει -εα
                                                                                              -εις -εων -ευσι(ν) -εις
                       σαρξ, ή:
                                                                                              -κες -κων -ξι(ν) -κας
                                                                                                                                                                          (incl. έλπὶς, χάρις, χείρ)
                                                 \xi -κος -κι -κα
                                                                                              -εις -εων -εσι(ν) -εις
                                                                                                                                                           N.Sg 1\zeta/\epsilon \upsilon \zeta \rightarrow \epsilon \iota \zeta in Pl N./A.
                       πολις, ή:
                                                 -i\zeta -\epsilon\omega\zeta -\epsilon i -iv \sigma\omega\mu\alpha, το:
                                                 -μα -ματος -ματι -μα
                                                                                              -ματα -ματων -μασι(ν) -ματα (incl. πῦρ, ὕδωρ φῶς)
                       γενος, το:
                                                 -ος -ους -ει -ος
                                                                                              -\eta -\omega \nu -\varepsilon \sigma \iota(\nu) -\eta N.Sg o\varsigma \rightarrow \eta in Pl ch18 Adjs: εἷς (3-1-3): Μ: εἷς ἐνός ἑνί ἕνα F: μία μιᾶς μιᾶ μίαν
                                                                                                                                           η: ἕν ἑνός ἐνι ἕν
                                                                                                                                                                                                          (one)
                                                                                                                                                                               (sg. only)
                     \dot{\alpha}ληθής (3-3):
                                                 M/F: ἀληθής, ἁληθοῦς -εῖ -ῆ -εῖς -ῶν -έσιν -εῖς N: ἀληθές, -οῦς -εῖ -ές -η -ῶν -έσιν -η
                                                                                                                                                                                                          (true) (ἄ)πᾶς (3-1-3): μ: πᾶς παντός παντί πάντα πάντες πάντων πᾶσι(ν) πάντας (whole, each, all)
                                                 F: πᾶσα πάσης πάση πᾶσαν
                                                                                                             πᾶσαι πασῶν πάσαις πάσας
                                                 η: πᾶν παντός παντί πᾶν πάντα πάντων πᾶσι(ν) πάντα attributive: whole (anarthrous: each) predicate: all (usual) substantive: each/every/all person/thing πολύς (2-1-2): Μ: πολύς πολλοῦ πολλοῦ πολλόν ... F: πολλή -ης ... Ν: πολύ -λλοῦ -λλοῦ -λλοῦ πολύ πολλά ...(many) μέγας (2-1-2):
                                                 Μ: μέγας μεγάλου μεγάλω μέγαν ... F: μεγάλη -ης ... Ν: μέγα - - μέγα μεγάλά ...
                       [μείζων (3-3): μ: μείζων -ονος -ονι -ονα -ονες -ονων -οσιν -ονας Ν: -ον - - ον -ονα - - -ονα (same as πλειων)]
                     comparative:
                                                 Μ: δικαιότερος -τερου ... F: -τερα -τερας ...
                                                                                                                                           η: νεώτερον -τερου ... -τερα ...
                                                                                                                                                                                                        (2-1-2)
                     superlative:
                                                 Μ: ἰσχυρότατος -τατου ... F: -τατη -τατης ...
                                                                                                                                           η: σοφώτατον -τατου ... -τατα ...
                                                                                                      overlap agrist indicative or imperfect ind also the form of ειμι participle: 'be'
         ch20 Participles
                                                                                                                                           \alpha v \tau + \sigma i v \rightarrow \alpha \sigma i v ev \tau + \sigma i v \rightarrow \epsilon i \sigma i v [\sigma \omega] v \tau + \sigma i v \rightarrow \sigma i v Present (3-1-3): ων οντος ...
                                                                                              ουσα ουσης ...
                                                                                                                            ον οντος ...
                                                                                                                                                           (+2nd Aorist)
                                                                                                                                                                                         while ~ing
    Active
                     Aorist (3-1-3): σας σαντος ... σασα σασης ...
                                                                                                                            σαν σαντος ...
                                                                                                                                                           (No front \varepsilon)
                                                                                                                                                                                         after ~ing
                     Perfect (3-1-3): κως κοτος ...
                                                                                                                                                           (with redup)
                                                                                                                                                                                         having ~ed
                                                                                              κυια κθιας ...
                                                                                                                            κος κοτος ...
                                                                                              ομενη ομενης ... ομενον ομενου .. (+2^{nd} Aorist)
                                                                                                                                                                                         while being ~ed
                     Present M/P:
                                                 ομενος ομενου ... (2-1-2)
   Middle
                                                                                              σαμενη σαμενης σαμενον σαμενου ... σαμενα ...
                                                                                                                                                                                         after ~ing (self)
                     Aorist M:
                                                 σαμενος σαμενου ...
/ Passive
                     Perfect M/P:
                                                                                                                                                                                         having been ~ed
                                                 μενος μενου ...
                                                                                              μενη μενης ...
                                                                                                                            μενον μενου ... μενα ...
                     Aorist Passive: \theta eig \theta entoς ... D: \theta eigin ... \theta eight \theta eight \theta eight \theta θεν θεντος ... (+2^{nd} Aor: no \theta) after being ~ed
                     AOrist Passive: σεις σεντος ... σειστεπείο celevral cele covers whole action
          ch21
                                                                                                                                               with plu/perfect verb
                   Infinitives Pres Aor Perf: Act: ειν σαι κεναι
                                                                                                        Μ/Ρ: εσθαι σασθαι σθαι \varepsilon i v \alpha i = to be Aor Pass: θῆναι
Note: subject
of infinitive
                      contract-αεο-verb present: Act: τιμᾶν, φιλεῖν, δηλοῦν M/P: τιμᾶσθαι, φιλεῖσθαι, δυλοῦσθαι (from \varepsilon v instead of \varepsilon \iota v) is in the
                      arthrous=subst anarthrous=compl. verb => purpose: [εἰς/προς τό] [[τοῦ] inf | result: ώστε inf | cause: δια τό inf | time: eg ἐν τω
 accusative
                                                                     εἰμι subj. = \tilde{\omega} \tilde{\eta}ς \tilde{\eta} ... (add accent) 'be ch23 Subjunctives:
                                                 Act: \omega \eta \varsigma \eta \omega \mu \varepsilon \nu \eta \tau \varepsilon \omega \sigma \tau (\nu)
                                                                                                             Μ/Ρ: ωμαι η ηται ωμεθα ησθε ωνται (lengthen vowel)
                     Aorist: Act: σω σης ση σωμεν ...
                                                                             Mid: σωμαι ση σηται σωμεθα σησθε σωνται
                                                                                                                                                           Aor Pass: \theta \omega \theta \tilde{\eta} \varsigma \theta \tilde{\eta} \theta \omega \mu \epsilon \nu \theta \eta \tau \epsilon \theta \omega \sigma \iota \nu Uses:
                                                | shall/can we? | μη+Aor | οὐ μη: certainly won't | ἱνα/ὁπως: so that | ὁς ἀν / ὁταν whoever/whenever let's hortative
                                                      deliberative
                                                                           prohibitive
                                                                                                    emph. negative
                                                                                                                                            purpose
                                                                                                                                                                      indefinite subject /
                     Condition: simple ind ɛi | contra-fact ɛi+past: if you had | present general ἐαν+subj: if ... is ... | prob. fut. ἐαν+subj if ... will ...
                                                                                                                                           μη assumes no: 'He isn't ..., is he?'
                     Question bias: oử/oủx assumes yes: 'Isn't/Doesn't/Won't ...?'
                                                                                                    şame ending as present infinitive & 3rd-sg optative <sub>ch24</sub> Imperatives:
                                                                                                      Μ/Ρ: - ου εσθω - εσθε εσθωσαν είμι: - ἰσθι ἐστω - ἐστε ἐστωσαν Act: - ε ετω - ετε ετωσαν
                     Aorist: Act: - σον σατω - σατε σατωσαν
                                                                                            Mid: - σαι σασθω - σασθε σασθωσαν Aor Pass: - θητι θητω - θητε θητωσαν command (pres=continue doing; aor=do once) | prohibition (with \mu\eta) | entreaty (give us our daily bread)
           ch8 Prepositions:
                                                                                                                                                                                           Α
                     no prep
                                                             of/from
                                                                                                                      to/in/by/for ἀπο
                                           from; away from (apostasy), of ἐκ
                                                   out of (exit); from, by in; within, by, with, among έv
                                                                                                                                                                      into (eisegesis); to, for, in είς
                                                  instead of (antichrist) ἀντί
                         πρό
                                                      before (prologue)
                         σύν
                                                                                                                 with (synchronous)
                                                                                                                                                                                up (anastasis)
                         ἀνά
                                                                                                                                                                     to/toward/with (proselyte)
                        πρός
                                                                  for
                                                                                                                               at
                                                 through; by (diameter)
                         διά
                                                                                                                                                                                   because of
                                                         against; down
                                                                                                                                                                                 according to κατά
                         μετά
                                                                 with after
                                                      about (periscope)
                                                                                                                                                                            around (perimeter)
                         περί
                                                                                                                                                                           above (hyperactive)
                         ύπέρ
                                                                  for ύπό
                                                                   by
                                                                                                                                                                          under (hypothermia)
                          ἐπί
                                                                                                                           upon
                                                                                                                                                                                beside (parallel)
                        παρά
                                                                from
                                                                                                                     with (paraclete)
```